Classical & Mathematical School. THE subscriber poses to open in the city of Washington, on the later of September, a Classical and Matthematical School of a high order. For this purpose he has solured a central and very deskrable location on the south. Side of F street, three doors west from 13th.

The number of purplis will be limited to tweetly. To these he will devote his exclusive attention, in preparing them for college or for business and professional pursuits.

It is the design to make this a permanent Classical and Mathematical School, with a number so limited that each pupil may receive a large share of the teacher's attention; and the result of his own experience and that of others convince him that he can in this way accomplish much more for their mental and moral improvement, and for their thorough and rapid progress in study, than can be done in a school of a larger number or of a more miscellaneous character.

From the views expressed to the subscriber by intelligent school of a larger number of of a more masses, ascter, ascter, and the views expressed to the subscriber by intelligent persons, it is believed there are many in this city who desire the establishment of such a school at the present time; and all of his energies, guided by his past experience in the instruction of youth, will be devoted to making it, in all managers, worthy of the confidence and patronage of those instruction of youth, will be devoted to making it, in all respects, worthy of the confidence and patronage of those who may be disposed to place their sons under his charge. Terms, per quarter, $12.50.

SHADES OF CHARACTER,

OR THE INFANT PILGRIM. OR THE INFANT PILIGHIM.

BY ANNE WOODROFFE, author of "Michael Kemp." In two volumes. R. Carter & Brothers.

"A charming book, full of deep, true, and glowing sentiment, with lively glimpses of character, pen-portraits and sketches, which keep the interest ever alive, and withat wise instruction is so happilly blended that the pleasure of the book is only equalled by its profit. It is a better book than "The Wide, Wide World," which has been so widely and justly popular, and we are sure that those who read this will be glad that we have called their attention to it."—

THE LOST SENSES: DEAFNESS AND BLIND-NESS. By Dr. Kitto.

"This is a work of great interest, from one of the most learned and secomplished writers of the age, revealing the mysteries of the world in which those live who have been deprived of the sense of sight or hearing. Ever since his boyhood, for more than thirty years, Dr. Kitto has passed a life of great activity as a scholar, in a state of the most intense deafness to which any living creature can be subjected. His account of himself, and of his discriminating remarks on the condition of the blind, (James Mitchell, Laurs Bridgeman, and others,) are replace with profound thought on the interesting phenomenon presented in the progress of their mental training."—Christian Observer.

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SEASON. WE have the pleasure of informing the citizens and strangers of this city. Georgetown, Alexandria, and environs, that, after an absence of several days, there have followed our return home the following named goods in our department of the Dry Goods line; all of which will be found to be decidedly the most magnificent productions of their several kinds ever offered to the public in this region of country and them.

department of the Dry Goods line; all of which will be found to be decidedly the most magnificent productions of their several kinds ever offered to the public in this region of country, and the most reasonable:

Elegant Gobelin Tapesty Rugs, which for beauty and finish will be looked at with wonder and astonishment that such things can be produced by the hands of man; they were the observed of all observers who passed them to-day as they were being opened.

5 cases rich Curtain materials, with all the belongings for curtains, at very low prices.

10 cartons elegant Muslin and Lace Under-curtains, embroidered in application, unique raised, and rammaged or vine-work.

Rich French and Swiss Oiled Furniture Chinizes.

We shall be receiving by the next packets the most extensive and best-selected stock of all kinds of Carpeting ever offered in this city for sale before.

Such are our facilities for obtaining goods in our department, (Furniture), that we can confidently assure all house-keepers in want of anything we keep that they can do far better by making their purchases in our city than any other we know of. As we get all our goods from first hands, and sell them under about four-fifths the expense that Northers retailers are under, the reason is obvious. All who would wish to feast their eyes are cordially invited to our ware-rooms, one door east of the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street, and we will do our best to entertain them at any time through the season.

**NOTICE.**—The undersigned hereby inform the citizens of Washington and the public generally that they have this day entered into copartnership for the purpose of making Plans, Specifications, and estimates for bwelling and other Houses, and to measure and value all descriptions of builders' work. A thorough practical acquaintance with the various branches of house-building authorizes the undersigned thus to offer their services to meet the increasing demands of the community.

These returns comprise about one-half the State. In the 4th and 5th districts, the Democratic candidates ran, and the vote of both is included in the above table. The vote polled is large.

> Gen. Scott at Harrisburg. HARRISBURG. Sept. 16.

Gen. Scott arrived here to-day from Baltimore at 1 o'clock, and dined at the Railroad Hotel. Governor Bigler and the heads of Departments, and a large number of citizens called upon him. The General thanked them, in a few pertinent remarks, for the kind attention paid him. At 2 o'clock he took the cars for Pittsburg, where he makes a brief stay. Notwithstanding that his visit was unexpected, and that five hundred and fifty-three Whigs had left this neighborhood for the meeting at Lancaster, there was a very large gathering to greet the old hero of an hundred battles, and loud and long were the enthusiastic cheers with which they welcomed him to the capital of the old Keystone State.

Movements of Gen. Scott.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Sept. 17. Gen. Scott arrived here to-day, and addressed a large gathering of citizens from the American House.

The Whigs had a grand mass meeting this afternoon in the court-house yard, which was addressed by Gov. Stanly, Hon. Edward Stanly, and Judge Conrad, of Philadelphia. The Philadelphia Glee Club also sang.

Arrival of Gen. Wool. CINCINNATI, Sept. 17. Gen. Wool arrived here last night.

The weather is pleasant Ohio State Fair.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 17. Professor Mapes delivered the annual address yesterday afternoon. Hon. H. L. Ellsworth, late Commissioner of Patents, also made a few remarks. The manufacturers' department is well filled from all parts of the Union. The collection of fowls is large and varied, and excites much interest. The collection of farming impliments is unusually large. The total number of admissions into the enclosure yesterday was 49,000, and the total number of strangers in town is estimated at 75,000. Pickpockets are doing a good business, and several of them have been arrested. One fellow was stabbed while in the act of picking a gentleman's pocket. The total receipts yesterday were $14,500.

Martin Wells was arrested yesterday for stealing $1,400 and two horses belonging to St. Louis.

Congressional Nominations.

MILWAUKIE, Sept. 17. The Democrats of the first district have nominated Daniel Wells for Congress, and John B. Macy, of Fond du Lac, in the second district.

Alabama Southern-Rights Convention. MONTGOMERY, ALA., Sept. 16. The nomination of the Hon. George M. Troupe and General Quitman was ratified on Monday night with great enthusiasm, and presidential electors having been appointed, the convention adjourned sine die. Dinner to Mr. Baring.

BOSTON, Sept. 17. A dinner was given last evening, at the Revere House, to Thomas Baring, the Mayor presiding. Mr. Baring made a speech, which was responded to by the Hon. Edw. Everett.

THE YOUNG LADY'S COUNSELLOR; or, Outlines and Illustrations of the Sphere, the Duties, and the Danjers of Young Women. Designed to be a guide to true happiness in this life, and to Glory in the life which is to come. By Rev. Daniel Wise, A. M.

This work has been received with very great favor whereever it is known. The editor of the Northern Christian Advocate says: "We had heard good things of this work, and on reading it, most cheerfully add our testimony to its merits. It is not adventurous in its dight—aims at no terra incognite; but most gently and assiduously cultivates ground already known. Its sage counsels, calivened with illustrations, are worth of a piace in every lady's mind. The style is not ornate—it is better—flowing like the limpid, transparent brook over its pebbly bed, diffusing health and pleasure wherever it goes. The work is not wanting in nerve and originality: it is sufficiently removed from that class of jenine and forceless compilations scissored from preceding authors, and glued together by the mere book-maker. For the objects had in view, it is one of the best works we have ever seen.

The River-Health.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17. Heavy rains have been falling. The Ohio river is in good navigable condition for medium-class boats.

The weather is cool, and the city more healthy. No new cases of cholera have occurred for sevecorner of 7th and H streets.
